HOBBS-JONES.

A beautiful wedding last night was that of Miss Florence Hobbs and Mr. Winfield Payne Jones, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Hobbs, on Orescent

The ceremony, at 8:30 o'clock, was performed in the drawing room, which was picturesque in white and green. A high back of palms and ferns and flowers, out of which showed clusters of white roses, formed a background for the bridai party, and at each side were candles in tall brass candlesticks on white pedestals. An sisle from the stairway into the drawing room was formed of baskets of white sweet peas and ferns on white pedestals, joined by ropes of white tulle, twined with smilax. The floor was covered with crash, and vases of sweet peas on the mantel, with wild smilax, forming doors and windows, completed an artistic effect in white and

The bride entered the drawing room with her father, and she was preceded by her attendants-Miss Helen Hobbs, maid of honor; Miss Elizabeth Jones, of Alexandria,; Miss Laura Payne, Miss Constance Knowles, Miss Emma Robinson, bridesmaids. The bride-Robinson, bridesmaids. The bride-groom was accompanied by his best man, Mr. John Marshall Jones, and the ceremony was performed by Father Gaston Payne, of Clifton Forge, Vs. The bride, a pretty blonde, was love-ly in her wedding gown of Callot satin. It was elaborately band-embroid-ered and its trimming was in rose point lace. The bridal bouquet was of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

The maid of honor wore light green crepe de chine and lace, and the bridesmaids were exquisite lingerie gowns with a finishing touch in green. Their bouquets were of white carnations, tied with the carnations, and the bridesman table. with green table. A large company was that an excursion would be given to a present, and they were entertained with nearby river resort. The enterprise did handsome hospitality.

The house was decorated with taste throughout. A delicious supper was served from the dining room, where the decorations were in white and green. Music was furnished during the evening by an orchestra at the head of the stairs. Mr. and Mrs. Jones went east for a month's stay, and, returning, they will make their home for the present with Dr. and Mrs. Hobbs.

Their marriage is a matter of pleased interest with a large sequaintance, since both are popular socially. The bride has the beauty and social graces which have made her since her debut a favorite slike with married people and young people, and Mr. Jones has a hout of friends in professional and social life. Coming here from Virginia, where he is widely and prominently connected, he has been most successful in the practice of law, and is a member of the firm of Payne, Little & Jones. — Atlanta Con-

AMUSEMENTS.

The crowds that attended the amusement houses last night were well repaid for their trouble. The management at the Surprise and Alexandria Amusement Company prepared first class enter-tainments and the vaudeville and pictures of the magnificent charge of Pickett's division at Gettysburg on July 3, 1863. Rev. Mr. Poindexter was a participant and an eye witness of that charge and most lucidly and interestingly describes that fateful event.

SNOWDEN SCHOOL CARPENTER

On December 15, 1908, a carpenter shop was established in Snowden School of this city. Since the opening of this shop, weekly lessons have been given every Tuesday afternoon to a class of large boys and every Friday afternoon to a class of small boys.

We have been very fortunate in secur-ing the services of a competent teacher, a graduate of the Armstrong Manual

Much interest on the part of the pupils has been manifested in this work from the beginning and unquestionably great good has been accomplished. The articles made by the boys will be on exhibition in the assembly room of the Seaton school building Tuesday, June 15, from 5 to 8 o'clock p. m., to which the public is contrally invited. Having accomplished so much in so short a time with our limited means, we are quite sure that much better results may be obtained the next session, if the potrons and friends will kindly come to our assistance. The following contributions have been received for the benefit of the shop : Previously acknowledged ... ....
